Vanishing Act

Gaz Coombes

Too many heartbeats No energy Like a slow climb Then you can't breath Love is a reflex Safe in your footsteps But I can't get The balance in check Just another vanishing act

I'm gonna get my fucking head straight! I'm gonna put on my happy face!

I lost the weekend Walking the street When it buried me I followed the straight lines To the war cry Of the people outside Love is a reflex Safe in your footsteps But I can't get The balance in check Just another vanishing act

I'm gonna get my fucking head straight! I'm gonna put on my happy face!

Too many heartbeats No energy Like a slow climb Then you can't breath Love is a reflex Safe in your footsteps But I can't get The balance in check Just another vanishing act

I'm gonna get my fucking head straight! I'm gonna put on my happy face! I'm gonna get my fucking head straight! I'm gonna put on my happy face!
