

Canine Disposal Unit

Gaza

We had our day. Before our hands grayed and died, before the world dried up. We had our day. We walked along the road and picked up the bones that were our relatives. We had our day. I put my face to the dogs and let them pull the smile from me.