

When They Beg

Gaza

24 hour news hit my face in the darkness and I was yours.
I stood and watched it fall. The world markets collapsed.

(DAWN)

I felt it in my guts (DUSK) kicking like a baby.

And I can't find a balance between fear and excitement.

There is truth in history and in this physical world.

Nations will come and go. Empires and ashes.

We've seen this before. Stay calm. Do the right thing.

And when they beg, when they ask you for more...