

Sea Of Tranquility

Gazpacho

Suspended mess in timelessness too cold to be out waltzing.
Submerged within beneath my skin a bullet in the ocean.

Up in the sky where starfish fly a deep blue lake of ice.
A quiet sea of tranquillity and who will help you now.

Nobody will ever love like I do
Nobody will ever love you like I do.

Until that breath in emptiness a darkness lay around you.
Afloat and free on a silvered sea and who will ever find you
