

Lost In The Fog

GBH

All the boys and girls from round the world are gathering here today.

They're gonna' run and jump, dance and sing and play.

But you'd better think twice on the merchandise.

Lost in the fog and no way out ..

Lost in the fog and no way out ..

Lost in the fog and no way out ..

The gate's been shut.

The flag on your chest don't mean thing as long as you're havin g a go, go.

The colour of your skin or the shape your in,
do as you're told, you've gotta' go for gold.

Drowning in commercials, washed up as a joke.

Contracted all the sponges, due for a soak.

Let's all run with the number one.
