Help is not needed for my back trouble
You drag out of me some messed up colours
Yeah

I own all of my own voices
I own all of my own voices

It doesn't matter who you are, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
Raggy bones meet a butchered heart, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
Brains and trains find it hard to start, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide

Now i'm caught up in furious spell inside
Of all i want to keep what keeps on leavin'

I own all of my own voices
I own all of my own voices

It doesn't matter who you are, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
Raggy bones meet a butchered heart, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
Brains and trains find it hard to start, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide

It doesn't matter who you are, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
Raggy bones meet a butchered heart, this is it
There's a simple life the moment you decide
