

Simply Call It Love

Gene Chandler

Oh, if I climb a mountain
Climb a mountain high
I'd find a hidden staircase and
Pluck the star right from the sky

Oh, encase the moonlight
And place it in your eyes
These things I'm gonna do
Just to make you happy

Could this simply be devotion, baby
Oh, honey, this funny feeling
That I'm dreaming of
Think about, ha ha

Oh, what words can
I use to tell you, baby
I guess I'm simply
Gonna call it love
Think about, ha ha

If I could build a castle
Like the kings used to do
I'll buy you lovely red roses
And place them in a bouquet for you

And all the prettiest rainbows
Would forever smile on you
These things I'm gonna do
Just to make you happy

Could this simply be a loyalty
Honey, this funny feeling
That I'm dreaming of
Think about, ha ha

Oh, what words can
I use to tell you, baby
I guess I'm simply
Gonna call it love
Think about, ha ha

Oh, when they made the birdies, girl
It's your song they sing
And when they found the diamonds, baby
They planted them for your wedding ring

And, oh, I'm glad you're by my side
Cause?
These things I'm gonna do
Just to make you happy

These things I'm gonna do
Just to make you happy

Could this simply be a gratitude

That I'm dreaming of
Think about, ha ha

Oh, what words can
I guess I'm simply
Gonna call it love
Think about, ha ha

Oh, what words can
I guess I'm simply

Oh, what words can
I guess I'm simply
Gonna call it love...
