

Who Needs It

Gene Pitney

A girl is a thing that'll take all your dough
Who needs it?
A girl in your arms is a terrible woe
Who need it?
She'll take all your dough then away she'll go
Who needs it, nobody needs it as much as I need it now

A girl never goes where you want her to go
Who needs it?
A girl never shows when you want her to show
Who needs it?
She'll give you a date then she'll make you wait and how
Who needs it, nobody needs it as much as I need it now

Hey girl, hey girl, hey girl, hey girl
Hey girl come one, hey girl come one
Hey girl I need you now

(2x)

Hey girl you're the devil with an angel face
Who needs it?
You'll give me the eye then you'll lead me a chase
Who needs it?
You'll give me the eye then away you'll fly
Who needs it, nobody needs it as much as I need it now
