

I Don't Think She'd Really Mind At All

Gene Watson

I've got her right where I don't want her
She won't even answer when I call
If I went out and found another
I don't think she'd really mind at all.

She's got me where I had her back when I had her fooled
Before she cried her blue eyes out and begged me to be true
And if tonight she did not hear my footsteps in the hall
I don't think she'd really mind at all.

I've got me wrapped around her finger
I've got her with my back against the wall
If I should disappear forever
I don't think she'd really mind at all.

She's got me where I had her back when I had her fooled
Before she cried her blue eyes out and begged me to be true
And if tonight she did not hear my footsteps in the hall
I don't think she'd really mind at all.
No, I don't think she'd really mind at all...
