Home By The Sea

Genesis

Creeping up the blind side, shinning up the wall stealing thru the dark of night
Climbing thru a window, stepping to the floor checking to the left and the right
Picking up the pieces, putting them away something doesn't feel quite right

Help me someone, let me out of here then out of the dark was suddenly heard welcome to the Home by the Sea

Coming out the woodwork, thru the open door pushing from above and below shadows without substance, in the shape of men round and down and sideways they go adrift without direction, eyes that hold despair then as one they sign and they moan

Help us someone, let us out of here living here so long undisturbed dreaming of the time we were free so many years ago before the time when we first heard welcome to the Home by the Sea

Sit down Sit down as we relive out lives in what we tell you

Images of sorrow, pictures of delight things that go to make up a life endless days of summer longer nights of gloom waiting for the morning light scenes of unimportance like photos in a frame things that go to make up a life

Sit down Sit down as we relive out lives in what we tell you let us relive out lives in what we tell you

Sit down sit down cos you won't get away so with us you will stay for the rest of your days. So sit down
As we relive out lives in what we tell you
Let us relive out lives in what we tell you
