

Lonely Days

Gentleman

Yes baby thanks for the way you make me feel this love feel so real so real, so real you know that i will always be around just keep your feet on solid ground never will i make you frown

You talk bout those lonley days cant't stand it being on your own tell me bout your lonley days but don't you worry
i'm coming back home
you talking bout lonley days can't stand it being by yourself
you need me and no one else i understand every word you say and i've tried my best not to stay away from you we had come a long way and i never regret a moment i spent with you and i will never give you up no matter what people may say or what dem wanna do i know that you miss my touch just relax for a moment baby girl

let me ensure you baby so you don't have to fret just remember when we walking through the valley of dead when we did down in the struggle but we still did connect now we rise above that level now dem can't intercept girl i adore you cause you are my greatest asset and among all the cards you're the ace in my deck let me tell you this baby don't you forget this ya love it never make us upset

and i will never hurt you or desert you love you from the very day your mama birth you and i am certain lady virtue my love is like the moon that's shining through your curtain remember when we walking through the pathway out love was like a light that guides us right through the dark way and now we walking on broadway now our love is even brighter
