

Here we go again girl
The same ting now as then
Reachin for the light
That's never-ending so begin
Listen to the wind
Count your blessings in
Reaching for the light that s never-ending

Now we know that dis ya love is everlasting
Deeper than well blossom bloom
And we know dis a no past ting
Right around the world a second
We nuh hestitate is not a mask ting
And dis is not suprising what's uprising
Love and bliss we advertising
And dis is food for our soul
Live a fruitful life befor we old

Still goin on still going on
Pushing obstacles out of the way
Still going on still going on
Stay by your side until the end of days

Never have to search tenderness all around you
Better not worse since the day that I found you
Priceless love and joy is what it amounts to Knowing all the time I can count on you
From the first moment I knew what's in store
Every likkle ting about you iman adore
Pleasure and desires that we never knew before
Woman you really make me glad and so much more
Time truly the master of it all
Seasons they may change but love remain the same
Whethersummer spring winter or fall
We'll be there for us through all the pain and the strain
Burning hot it is blazin passion amazing
No holding back and saving
And dis is food for our soul
We live fruitful life before we old
