

Mercy For The Memories

Geoff Moore

Geoff Moore/Steven Curtis Chapman

Psalm 103/Jeremiah 31:34

Can you hear me broken hearted
All you prisoners of your past
Come and find your freedom at last
There is mercy for the memories
That hold you in your pain
Come and stand in the cleansing
Of forgiving rain

Chorus

For as far as the eastern sky is to the west
And as deep as the ocean's deepest depths
Your sin has been carried by a God who forgives and forgets
Come find mercy for the memories and rest

All you hiding in the shadows
Of innocence you've lost
Come and find your healing
In the shadow of the cross

Chorus
