

Is Love Enough

George Duke

Is love enough to keep you satisfied
Or has it turned kinda bleak
Is love enough to keep you comin' home
Every single day of the week
Is love enough to keep your groove on
Or do you have to mess around
Is love enough to keep your right from wrong
And keep your butt from all over town
Oh, is love enough

Is love enough, somebody asked me one day
I said I had to think to myself
Give me two days and I'll come back around
And tell you what I have to say
You know I thought, I dreamed, I fought and I prayed
What will be the answer that I seek
And the answer that I'm looking for
Just may not be the one I need
Oh, is love enough

Is love enough to make me do the do
Help me to do the things that I say
Is love enough to make me walk the walk
And walk the talk I speak everyday
Is love enough to make me stay real
And keep me from being phony to you
Is love enough to stand in front of a bus
And take the hit for you if that's what must be
Is love enough
