Circles

George Harrison

Friends come and friends go
As I go round and round in circles

Love someone change your mind Decide he was a swine As you go round and round in circles

He who knows does not speak He who speaks does not know And I go round in circles

Dislike someone and will not bend Later they may become your best friend As life it goes around in circles

He who knows does not speak He who speaks does not know And I go round in circles

Soul takes on a body with each birth we make our date With life and death along the road the soul reincarnates The show goes round and round in circles

When loss and gain and up and down Becomes the same, then we stop going in circles Round and round in circles
