Simply Shady

George Harrison

Somebody brought the juicer I thought I'd take a sip Came off the rails so crazy My senses took a dip Before the bottle hit the floor And I'd had time to think I was blinded by desire The elephant turned pink

The rest is simply shady Its all been done before But it doesnt't't make life simple That's for sure You may think about a lady Cause yourself a minor war And your life wont be so easy anymore

No sooner had I sown it When I began to reap I was torn from shallow water And plunged into the deep And as I started drowning I clung onto a straw That somehow kept me floating While my madness craved for more

The rest is simply shady Its all been done and more But it doesnt't't make life easy That's for sure

A pebble in the ocean Must cause some kind of stir And witnessed by the silence Will reach from here to there The action that Ive started Sometime I'll have to face My influence in motion Rebounding back through space

The rest is simply shady Its all been done before But it doesnt't't make life simple That's for sure You may think of sexy sadie Let her in through your front door And your life wont be so easy anymore
