

Do What You Think's Best

George Jones

Well, today you're goinna leave me, that you and I are through
That's alright if that's what you want to do
But you turned out to be unfaithful just like the rest
So go ahead and leave, do what you think's best.

But I'll get by without your love I've done it before
Old cupid wouldn't give us a shove you don't love me no more
I know you tried it's plain you couldn't stand the test
So go ahead and leave, do what you think's best.

If your poor old heart gets lonely and you wanna return
Just make sure before you come back your lesson you've learned
I'll be here with arms wide open I need you I confess
It's up to you now do what you think's best.

But I'll get by without your love I've done it before
Old cupid wouldn't give us a shove you don't love me no more
I knowed you tried it's plain you couldn't stand the test
Go ahead and leave, do what you think's best.

Go ahead and leave, do what you think's best...
