

Every Time I Look At You

George Jones

I see a beautiful rose
And my heart with love overflows
I get a feeling that I never knew
Evertime that I look at you.

The world looks so different to me
Everythings so pretty I see
I get a feeling that I never knew
Evertime that I look at you.

The world is your lips so devine
In you arms heaven is mine
I always see a dream come true
Evertime that I look at you.

Evertime that I look at you...
