

Forgive Me Now

George Jones

I lost her love and started drinking trying hard to stop from t hinking
And I found that it was not the thing to do But I can't stop my heart from throbbin' couldn't ease the pain by sudden
Forgive me now and I will always do what's right.

It's my fault my heart is broken, angry words that we have spok en
I'm so sorry now for I have seen the light Humbly hope that you still love me for I swear by stars above m e
Forgive me now and I will always do what's right.

Now I see I was mistaken and my heart is slowly breakin'
For I know that I was wrong right from the start Let's renew our romance dear please just give once more chance
dear
Forgive me now and I will always do what's right.

en
I'm so sorry now for I have seen the light Humbly hope that you still love me for I swear by stars above m
Forgive me now and I will always do what's right...
