

I Don't Want No Stranger Sleepin' in My Bed

George Jones

I don't want no strangers footsteps in my bedroom
Pulling down my window shade and messin' up my spread
I don't want nobody fluffing up my pillow
I don't want no stranger sleepin' in my bed.

If I have to cross the world without you
Always keep in mind what I said
I don't want nobody's arms around me.
I don't want no strangers sleepin' in my bed.

I don't want no strangers footsteps in my bedroom
Pulling down my window shade and messin' up my spread
I don't want nobody fluffing up my pillow
I don't want no stranger sleepin' in my bed.

I guess that I still need some reassurance
That keep those cheatin' thoughts out of my mind
And though you never gave me thoughts about you.
Darlin', let me tell you one more time.

I don't want no strangers footsteps in my bedroom
Pulling down my window shade and messin' up my spread
I don't want nobody fluffing up my pillow
I don't want no stranger sleepin' in my bed.

No, I don't want no stranger sleepin' in my bed...
