

I'm the One She Missed Him with Today

George Jones

Tonight when they lay down without a migrain
And he'll massage her neck when you were away
She'll tell him how she missed him all day long
But I'm the one she'll miss him with today.

She'll call him up at work to make sure he's still there
So we won't have to worry and we don't have to care
Looks like he's losing her, it's on it's way
'Cause I'm the one she'll miss him with today.

When they wake up at dawn she's always skeepin'
She let's him know his passion passed away
She tells him how she'll miss him when he's leaving Oh, but I'm the one she'll miss him with today.

She'll call him up at work to make sure he's still there
So we won't have to worry and we don't have to care
Looks like he's losing her, it's on it's way
'Cause I'm the one she'll miss him with today.

Looks like he's losing her, it's on it's way
'Cause I'm the one she'll miss him with today...
