

If I Painted a Picture

George Jones

If I painted a picture of all that I've seen
From the eyes of the woman in you
There'd be sunshine and roses, blue skies and rainbows
A picture of a heart that's been true.

You made me the flowers that bloom in the springtime
And I'm sure that you hung the moon
If I could paint you a picture
I'd paint how I feel about you.

You blended my love into blue skies
And made me the man of your dreams
With sunshine and roses, blue skies and rainbows
And beauty was all that I see.

You wake me and kiss me
And all of the scenery that I have pulled out of my mind
And if I could paint you a picture
Oh, my love would color each line.

Oh, for you are the color of bein' together
And the picture of my love for you...
