

No Blues Is Good News

George Jones

Well I buy the Sunday papers every Saturday night
Lookin' forward to tomorrow everything seems right
Seems like I'm a smilin' from my head down to my shoes
My baby loves me and no blues is good news

Well I used to be as lonely as a motherless child
It took every muscle in my body to smile
I got a funny feeling like I ain't never had
I tingle all over and a part of me feels bad

The misery and the loneliness that I've known before
Just makes me appreciate my baby that much more
When I come home there's kissin' my pipe and my house shoes
My baby loves me and no blues is good news

I smile and say good mornin' on the cloudiest day
I tip my hat to children as I I go on my way
The sun is shining and it's warming me too
My baby loves me and no blues is good news

Well I used to be as lonely as a motherless child...
The misery and the loneliness that I've known before...
