I didn't cheat and I didn't lie so her leaving took me by surpr ise

Just a note on the table saying we're through At first I went crazy so it took me sometime But I finally read between the lines It's not what I did it's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her each day I loved her I took it for granted and somehow she knew I didn't hold her when she needed a shoulder It's not what I did it's what I didn't do.

Now it's easy to see why her love died She was planning her nights by the T.V. Guide She needed me with her, oh, more than I knew I was too busy working, getting ahead When I should of been home loving her instead It's not what I did it's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her each day I loved her I took it for granted and somehow she knew I didn't hold her when she needed a shoulder It's not what I did it's what I didn't do.

It's not what I did it's what I didn't do...
