Blame It on Mexico

George Strait

In a bar in Acuna called Ma Crosby's
I found myself not feeling any pain
I told a 'Frisco girl I'd come for freedom
She said she'd only come to catch a train

We struck up some idle conversation Traded all the troubles on our minds One thing lead to another in the evening And I fell in love again for my last time

Blame it on Mexico if you need a reason Say too much guitar music, tequila, salt and lime Blame it on Mexico, but she's the reason That I fell in love again for my last time

Daylight dawned and found me in Del Rio In a rundown motel room as dark as hell I felt all the pains of a morning after And all alone as far as I could tell

Why she left I have no way of knowing
I guess she caught her train and that's a crime
She took everything I ever wanted
And I fell in love again for my last time

Blame it on Mexico if you need a reason Say too much guitar music, tequila, salt and lime Blame it on Mexico, but she's the reason That I fell in love again for my last time
