I'm so sorry, I keep interrupting What were you gonna say? You caught him cheatin' I don't blame you for walkin' away I know where you're comin' from It sounds like where I've been Oh, there I go interrupting your story once again Go on Go on You were sayin' how a fool Can only fool you so long It's true It's so true When they do you like that What else you can do but go on Our conversation won't change nothin' But it's sure nice to talk With somebody who's been cut out Of the same ol' cloth You know how you said happiness Can't be found lookin' back If you don't mind maybe we can Talk a little more about that Go on Go on You were sayin' this is better than Sittin' at home It's true It's so true When they do you like that What else can you do but go on-Even when you see No reason to Don't wait to live life 'cause it Won't wait for you Go on Please go on You were sayin' what don't kill us Only makes us strong It's true

But go on On... and on...

That's so true

When they do you like that

What else can you do
