Nadine

George Thorogood

As I got on a city bus and found a vacant seat, I thought I saw my future bride walkin?up the street, I shouted to the driver "hey conductor, you must slow down. I think I see her please let me off this bus" Nadine, honey is that you? Oh, Nadine. Honey, is that you? Seems like every time I see you darling you got something else to do. (Alternate verse: Seems like every time I catch you, datcha you 're up to something new)

I saw her from the corner when she turned and doubled back And started walkin?toward a coffee colored Cadillac I was pushin?through the crowd to get to where shes at And I was campaign shouting like a southern diplomat.

Downtown searching for her, looking all around, Saw her getting in a yellow cab heading up town. I caught a loaded taxi, paid up everybodys tab. With a twenty-dollar bill, told him "catch that yellow cab."

She moves around like a wave of summer breeze, Go, driver, go, go, catch her balmy breeze. Moving through the traffuc like a mounted cavalier Leaning out the taxi window trying to make her hear.
