

Sellout

George

I knew you
Before you entered through the deadly door
It's eaten away at you
It's given you the edge
You're dreaming of returning
But you don't think you can
(You don't think you can)

They don't sell the product to you
They sell you to the product
They don't give a fuck about you
They just want their deadly dosh
I wish you could see through this
I wish you could believe
That you can really do this
I know you can

'Cause I knew you
Before you entered through the deadly door
It's eaten away at you
It's given you the edge
You're dreaming of returning
But you don't think you can
You don't think you can

They don't want to know about
Your aspirations
They don't care about where they are
Sending you to
They don't mind they don't mind
To blacken your stream
They are pulling you along
So when will you see

That I knew you
Before you entered through the deadly door
It's eaten away at you
It's given you the edge
You're dreaming of returning
'cause I knew you
Before you entered through the deadly door
It's eaten away at you
It's given you the edge
You're dreaming of returning
(Dreaming of returning
You are dreaming of returning to that
To that same world
To that same world)
