

Don't Make Me Beg

Gerald Levert

Please, don't make me beg, no

If you looked in the dictionary
Under the word wrong, you'd see me crying, crying
If you looked for someone with the broken heart
Standing all alone, there I'd be dying

Come home asking for forgiveness, please
You just want to see me on my knees
Baby, you know I'm too cool for that
But I tell my soul to get you back

Girl, I'll do it if I have to
'Cause I'm sorry that I hurt you, baby
Can we talk and stay?
Baby, please don't make me beg, no, no, no

Girl, I'd give up everything that didn't have to do with me and you
Girl, I would change 'cause tonight I wanted you to see
It won't be easy getting rid of me
Girl, I'm staying, girl, I'm staying, I'm staying

So we could just start anew
You've been rude to me, I'll be better to you
I'd rather talk to, get out and stay now

I'll do it if I have to
'Cause I'm sorry that I hurt you, baby
Can we talk and stay?
Baby, please don't make me beg

Girl, I'll do it if I have to
'Cause I'm sorry that I hurt you, baby
Can we talk and stay?
Please, don't make me beg

Don't make me, don't make me, don't make me beg
Don't, don't, don't you make me get down on my knees
And beg you but I'll do it, baby, if I have to

Girl, I know that you love me
I know that you need me
I know that you really don't wanna hear
And please don't mean a thing anymore

I guess, you say that
I can't even sleep, there are blues in my head
Instead of burning come and talk to me
Please don't make me beg
Please, please, please
Please, don't make me beg
