

Good Morning

Gerald Levert

Oh baby, I feel you, can you feel me?
Oh baby last night was, last night was
I know you feel me, oh girl

What a better way to say, "Good morning"
You're lying on your side and I still want it
Girl just back it up a little bit for me
No better way to start the day, good morning

See last night was the bomb
Girl your love second to none
Smell of love is in the air
Baby now this morning can we take it there

You're acting like you sound asleep
But I know you're feeling me
Hush, let me do this
Inside you is where I'm suppose to be

What a better way to say, "Good morning"
You're lying on your side and I still want it
Girl just back it up a little bit for me
No better way to start the day, good morning

Ooh, I'm inside and I'm feelin' you feelin' me
We got a stride that's incredible, you're eatable, eatable
I'm 'bout to blow my love all over you
Do with it what you want to ooh

What a better way to say, "Good morning"
You're lying on your side and I still want it
Girl just back it up a little bit for me
No better way to start the day, good morning
