

Mr. Too Damn Good

Gerald Levert

Guess you never know a good thing
When it's right in your face
You've been abused for so long
Love gets tainted and all seems the same

I guess it's unbelievable
Someone could love you like this
Well time ain't no object and money ain't a thing
When you have someone to ease your pain

I wanna be the smile on your face
Be your stars and your moon
I wanna be your sunny day
Can I be your favorite tune?

I wanna be your breakfast in bed
And baby, I'll be your food
Mr. Too Damn Good To You

Yes sir, you've been hurt so many times
You don't know when love's for real
So you don't open up or give in to love

Or express how you feel
But just like Sunday morning
I take it easy, girl, I'm gonna wait

'Cause lovin' just ain't right
Without you by my side
Baby, you're my soul mate
Baby, I'll open doors

Be there for you any time
'Cause that's what your man's supposed to do
Baby, I wanna cook for you, I will spoil you

Girl, my whole objective is to please you
I'll run your bubble bath, make you laugh
Girl, through thick and thin I've got your back

I ain't gon be pressin' you or stressin' you to make love
We got so much time for that
I wanna be the smile on your face

Be your stars and your moon
Can I be your sunny day?
Every day, all day I'll be your favorite tune

I wanna be your breakfast in bed
And baby, I'll be your food
Mr. Too Damn Good To You

Baby, baby, I wanna be your shoulder
When you need one to cry on
I wanna be your pillow

When you need one to lie on, oh yeah

I wanna be the spot light that shines on ya
Girl, I wanna write the girl is mine on ya, yes I am

I wanna be your thought in your daydreams
I wanna be your everything, your everything
(Mr. Too Damn Good To You)
I wanna be everything you ever thought you wanted
(Mr. Too Damn Good To You)

Ever needed baby, yeah
Girl I wanna shout about it
You wanna tell the world about it
(Mr. Too Damn Good To You)

And can't nobody else believe me
You'll have everything you've needed, yeah, yeah
(Mr. Too Damn Good To You)
I'm gonna be so so good to you
