

Destiny

Geri Halliwell

Gotta a twisted, hungry feeling
It's a hunger for you
There's a midnight train that keeps on runnin'
Keeps on runnin' through
These empty hours I should be sleeping
Swimming in my dreams
But tonight my mind is dancin'
I'm tearing at the seams

What we had, what we lost
We gave to yesterday
A kiss and a smile, a little while
The heavens blew away

I believe in destiny
One more time for you and me
So let it out and let me in
We can fly, so let's begin
I believe in destiny
Tonight is ours eternally
So give it up and make it true
Set me free cos I want you

Gotta keep this moment moving
It's a deja vu
Your memory keeps rolling in
But light keeps spinning through

But though we're both far away
We've never been apart
Time and space, can it race
The love that's in my heart

I believe in destiny
One more time for you and me
So let it out and let me in
We can fly, so let's begin
I believe in destiny
Tonight is ours eternally
So give it up and make it true
Set me free cos I want you

I believe
I believe
I-i-i-i believe

I believe in destiny
One more time for you and me
So let it out and let me in
We can fly, so let's begin
I believe in destiny
Tonight is ours eternally
So give it up and make it true
Set me free cos I want you

I believe in destiny
One more time for you and me

So let it out and let me in
I believe in destiny
So give it up and make it true
Set me free cos I want you

[repeat to fade]
