Geri Halliwell

Hey little boy with those big brown eyes You don't know what you do to me I'm just a girl and I'm in disguise Just trying to be a woman It doesn't matter how we get there Can do this if we try Sometimes I just sit and wonder If this is good and why Let me love you, I know that I can If you take me then you'll understand So let me love you, I'll hold on tight If not for tomorrow then maybe tonight Hey little girl with those big blue eyes You know what you're doing, you're so grown up I watch you grind the little nut you're screwing It doesn't matter if you mean it Maybe I'm not your kind, sometimes I just sit and wonder If love is hard to find, if a girl loves a boy And she loves a girl What can you do at the end of the day There's nothing left to say But I love you
