

Lock the Doors

Get Scared

Lock the doors
And board the windows
So that nobody knows
Where we are,
We are hiding from the world!

Take me with you
Because I'm floating down a rabbit hole.
Ripper guide me
And let me sail my spirit home.

Twisting silence
Into words sing with me.
Spill your secrets
Sing with me.
Sing with me.

Lock the doors
And board the windows
So that nobody knows
Where we are,
We are hiding from the world!

Spirit sing!
Sing your song!
Sing your song for me!
Melody calls out for shadows.
Can't you hear them going on?

Twisting silence
Into words sing with me.
Spill your secrets
Sing with me.
Sing with me.

Lock the doors
And board the windows
So that nobody knows
Where we are,
We are hiding from the world!

Stay with me soul
So I wont be lonely.
Swallow hope
So I wont go hungry.

Lock the doors
And board the windows
So that nobody knows
Where we are,
We are hiding from the world!

Lock the doors
And board the windows
So that nobody knows
Where we are,
We are hiding from the world!
