

My Nightmare

Get Scared

In a slumber where no one can wake me from
The scent of her skin still haunts my lungs
Where the moon never leaves her eyes
Here's a toast to another endless night

It's a feeling in my bones
A carousel for two that no one knows
What a twist when we kiss I feel sick
Any moment I will wake without her lips

My paradise
is stripped and I'm weak
You'll never know
How much it kills me

Every time I close my eyes
I dream that your still here
(this is, this is my nightmare)
Every time I go to sleep
I scream cause your not there
This is my nightmare

As you fade right behind my eyelids
I get the feeling it's so familiar
But I can't do a thing to stop this now
Oh, I can't believe this is happening to me again

The wake of change is crashing
The lust of our fate is rusting
I hope I never wake up
It's not enough

My paradise
is stripped and I'm weak
You'll never know
how much it kills me

Every time I close my eyes
I dream that your still here
(this is, this is my nightmare)
Every time I go to sleep,
I scream cause your not there
This is my nightmare
This is my nightmare!

Floating, walking on air
I turn my head for just a moment
And your gone again

This is not the way it's supposed to be!
I've lost it all
This is not what I expect from someone that I love
Lost but never found
How dare you pull me out!
Hold me close I'm not alone!
You've left me here to drown!

Every time I close my eyes
I dream that your still here
(this is, this is my nightmare)
Every time I go to sleep,
I scream cause your not there
This is my nightmare
This is my nightmare!
