

Scream

Get Scared

Yeah

At the edge of us
I'm holding on
I've lost your trust
But I'm still trying

I've changed in many ways
I can't explain
I've lost my touch
And I'm not lying

Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like
Yeah, for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong

You've got a grip on me
I cannot take it by mistake
And you're the coward

My tongues become a gun
You've tortured me
I'm out of luck
And you're the trigger

Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like
Yeah, for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong

What goes on behind those eyes of yours
I'll never know but I've been told
When this all comes crashing down on us
I'll be here to sort us out, to sort us out, out

And I'm screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like
Yeah, for a time like this
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong

Screaming on the inside
Yeah, on the inside
I've come undone

And I'm waiting for a time like
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong
To prove you wrong
