

Start To Fall

Get Scared

Monsters and bed sheets to creep.
While underneath my bed.
It hears me speak about these problems.
I've yet to find these monsters read my mind.
With ears and eyes to paralyze demise.
Tell me how can I can take everything inside.

Slow down! Do you wanna slow down?
In the moment that you start to fall,
Are you comfortable?

Devils come out at night.
In the form of people that I love
They said I'm not enough.
Well factual this has become into
Something so understandable,
So understandable!
Help me out!
Tell me how can I can take everything inside.

Slow down! Do you wanna slow down?
In the moment that you start to fall,
Are you comfortable?

Slow down! Do you wanna slow down?
In the moment that you start to fall,
Are you comfortable?

So comfortable,
So comfortable,
You, you say you're comfortable,
Until your hands are full
For, for that familiar pulse of that they feelings aren't enough

Slow down! Do you wanna slow down?
In the moment that you start to fall,
Are you comfortable?
Slow down! Do you wanna slow down?
In the moment that you start to fall, start to fall.
Are you comfortable?
You're comfortable.
You're comfortable!
Oh you, you say you're comfortable!
You, don't you tell me you...
You.. you say you're comfortable!
