

Stumbling In Your Footsteps

Get Scared

What went wrong
We both know that you're not here
This is where you haunt and it's kept me in fear for far too long

Now you hide the ghost
The ghost we both know
I'm the taste on your tongue
The taste you can't spit out

Please come home again
Let me show you we're good enough for your love

What have you done
When is it ever enough
To be seen in my eyes
Tell me the truth
What did you have left to lose
To be seen in my eyes as a boy down on his knees
When the kingdom has lost its king
Who's left to lead

Torn apart and left here to rot away (rot away) rot away
Im making sense while you save yourself
Saving me is all that can help

Now you hide the ghost
The ghost we both know
I'm the taste on your tongue
The taste you can't spit out

Please come home again
Let me show you we're good enough for your love

What have you done
When is it ever enough
To be seen in my eyes
Tell me the truth
What did you have left to lose
To be seen in my eyes as a boy down on his knees
When the kingdom has lost its king

Tell me who's left to lead

Your kingdom has turned to a boneyard
The look on your face as you leave
You cut me so deep that it had scars
You had the world right at your feet (4x)

You had it all (2x)

What have you done
When is it ever enough
To be seen in my eyes
Tell me the truth
What did you have left to lose
To be seen in my eyes as a boy down on his knees

When the kingdom has lost its king
Who's left to lead (2x)
