

Ordinary World

Get Set Go

Peter lost another job today
He showed up drunk and forty minutes late
It was his last mistake
Peter drank all through the day
Another drink to numb the pain
But the day remained

Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
In an ordinary world
With ordinary boys fking ordinary girls
In an ordinary time
So ordinary that we are losing our minds
So whatca gonna do
The choice is up to you

Mary got knocked up again
She got drunk and slept with her best friend
Mary didn't know what to say
Because she knew that her best friend was gay
She fked him anyway

Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
In an ordinary world
With ordinary boys fking ordinary girls
In an ordinary time
So ordinary that we are losing our minds
So whatca gonna do
The choice is up to you

Peter climbed into his car
Filled up his tank and fled to foreign parts
With a broken heart

Mary is a single mom
She loves her son but amends the life she lost
She bears a heavy cross

Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
Hey Hey Hey
Another ordinary day
In an ordinary world
With ordinary boys fking ordinary girls
In an ordinary time
So ordinary that we are losing our minds
So whatca gonna do
The choice is up to you
