Get Set Go

Let's define the end conclusion
rearrange the last solution,
make the ends meet the means.

Do you assume,
the devil's daughter
drinks only bottled water,
well I'll buy her a glass
just the same.

When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up
I wanna be a fire truck.
I wanna be a fire truck
when I grow up.

Should I falter.
If I waiver,
disregard my behavior,
cause I'm getting better everyday.

If Jesus, shows his face again,
will he vote republican,
I hope he votes for me,
the fire truck.

When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up
I wanna be a fire truck.
I wanna be a fire truck
when I grow up.

Should I falter.
If I waiver,
disregard my behavior,
cause I'm getting better everyday.

Do you assume,
the devil's daughter
drinks only bottled water.
Well I'll buy her a glass just the same.

When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up I wanna be a fire truck.
When I grow up
I wanna be a fire truck.
I wanna be a fire truck
when I grow up.
Ahhhh.
