

Do You Read Me

Ghinzu

Do you read me?
Do you read me loud?
Do you hear me coming to you now baby?

I'm a chopped off head
Cruising at the speed of sound
Spitfiring in the air
Transmitting to the ground

See I'm a projectile baby
Radio controlled
And when I call out your name
It releases me from pain

I'm a blood-hot comet
Going to see my rendez-vous
Do you hear me coming to you now baby?

I was looking for you for so many nights
I was looking for you from time to time
Do you read me?
Do you hear me?

I'm a headless body
Starving for your electro shocks
I want to shake and ride
And twist all night long

So I'm just lying on the floor
Eating some coke and silicon
And hope only for the day
We'll be back at one

I'm a headless fury
Going to meet my rendez-vous
Do you hear me coming to you now baby

I was waiting for you for so many nights
I was waiting for you from time to time
Do you read me?
Do you hear me?
