

Dream Maker

Ghinzu

Come right now, it's my happy hour
Don't you miss a sec of my special offer
Baby pick a dream, baby make a wish
And get all of what you want, what you've ever wanted

I'm the shining in your eyes
Well I am the genius that ignites life into your secret dreams
I'm between God and between a machine
Come and get your lucky hit, your one time kiss into my arms

Sign the paper, life is bright
Get your dirty credit, I'm your guide
You got it?

Can make you live an ancient emperor
In an endless orgy of models and fruits
Can make you smoke some kryptonite
That'll turn your brain into dynamite
Boom! Then it will explode a million times
Into a million parts of gemstones and light
I can give you all of that special soul I stole
Intact, from an indian warrior
It'll make you brave enough for you to turn
Your lies into the truth

Sign the paper, life is bright
Get your dirty credit, I'm your guide
you got it?

More, you wanna get more
We'll make it home, 'til after life
And then we'll spend it all
All over again
