

It's not fair, you know
When you're the only one in tune
It's not fair anymore
When you're not broken hearted too
It's not fair anymore...

All the schemes that you dream about
Won't matter at all when you wake up alone
And if she really haunts you now
Just pick up the phone...
But you know you won't

It's not fair, you know
When you're the only one in tune
It's not fair anymore
When you're not broken hearted too
It's not fair anymore...
