

See the Light

Ghost

Many a sin I have witnessed
And in many indeed I have been
Many a rat I have befriended
And so many a thorn stood between
But of all the demons I've known
None could compare to you

Every day that you feed me with hate
I grow stronger
Every day that you feed me with hate
I grow stronger

Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light
Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light

Many a mind I have haunted
And in many a way, I have been
Often the one to have flaunted
An image grotesque and obscene
But of all these dark roads that I roam
None could compare to you

Every day that you feed me with hate
I grow stronger
Every day that you feed me with hate
I grow stronger

Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light
Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light

Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light
Drink me, eat me
Then you'll see the light

Every day that you feed me with hate (Drink me, eat me)
I grow stronger! (Then you'll see the light)
Every day that you feed me with hate (Drink me, eat me)
I grow stronger! (Then you'll see the light)
