

On My Knees

Ghostface Killah

I can't fall down on my knees (i thought you loved me)
(if you really loved me you would have stayed with me)
And apologize to you (and apologized to me thats all i'm askin) but that ain't my style (well let me hear wat you had to say earlier)

I remember how me met it was on the train
How could i forget.
you smiled when you looked at me
The soft of your lips that captured me the whole ride down we kept our eyes on each other and then me sat, down together you gave me your number said 'give me a call'
I thought i wouldn't call at all... but here we are fell in love
like hand to glove
pure bliss from above now all we seem to do is fuss and fight we never seem to get it right.
see there's too much fire so much desire So i took a little pill to take me higher I'm sorry if i hurt you when i ran astray I guess i got caught in the day- heyey

and apologize to you
it not in my style

I remember the night when we were all alone
you were on the sofa
i was on the phone
you over heard me call out my best friends name thats when you went crazy started going insane grabbed the phone from my hand backed me against the wall shouting and askin 'who was on the call?'
you would believe me when i said it was just a friend. thats when all the madness began you kept yellin while i stuck to the floor cryin all these tears, i can't cry them no more i knew you had a temper i wish i didn't see it

You wanted me to be faithful I said i could be it but that didn't stop you from puttin your hands on my face you said you simply had to 'put me into my place' at the end of every tunnel theres always a light and the door will show whose right

cause it not in my style (x2) he's got you begging on your knees crying in you sleep

making you believe him
But you're stronger then you'll ever know girl you control your own world No need to take no more! (x2) hey yo yo yo

I asked you to calm down asked you who was on the phone put the horn down
had a glass of wine from a 99 yeah a green one which i bought for you from the cruise you won I dun approve of those male friends I told you back then when we first got together that i don't trust those men
And you did it again
I lost my temper blinked out and wrecked the house boo thats all i remember i'm sorry (sorry Sorry)

and apologize to you
cause that not in my style(x4)
