

Move With Your Lover

Ghostland Observatory

Everybody wants what they cannot have
Everybody loves what the people say
One seems to go
Everybody wants to sing that song, sing that song, sing that song
Well move with your lover
Move with your love
Move with your lover
Move with your love

Everybody moves with the face of god
Everybody moves with a cattle prod
Everybody sees all the diamond rings
Well everybody wants to sing that song, sing that song, sings that song

Well move with your lover
Move with your love
Move with your lover
Move with your love

Well alright
We got one more round of sound then we gotta get out of town
You know what to do

Move, move, move,

Move with your lover
Move with your love
Move with your lover
Move with your love
Well come on
Yea come on
Yea come on
Yea come on, move
