

Rotoriculous

Ghoultown

mad machine spinnin worm in a wheel soul in a black hole snake in a peel rotating madhouse strobe on the wall melting mirrors distorting the fall chorus:

rotoriculous spinner of death shaken my head and stolen my breath rotoriculous spinner of life you're a mad machine on a wicked wicked ride rolling backwards on a serpent mile millions of strangers caught in its guile plead the fifth of insanity sinister railway of mockery yeah thrill junkie jive on a permanent fix screams cut like razors to the quick I told you before, you'll never escape it's a mad machine come and join the race on a wicked wicked ride
