

Running from the Sun

Ghoultown

she came without a kiss blood stains upon her wrists so cold
she said take me home

her dress fell to the floor come close my virgin whore take it slow
the darkness grows

I am the nameless
eternal pain prince
I am the day's forgotten one

chorus:

morning flame it burns in her a price for love at every turn she said
I think I'm dead

now I take this dying bride on eternal nightwing ride she flies
away from life

I am the darkest lover's secret
I am the snake's scarlet tongue

I am your prince of pain soon I will be your everything thrust you inside out steal the words from in your mouth in darkness we are one hidden from the sun
where we listen to them wail as I take you away from your yellow hell
