

Texas Bound

Ghoultown

I was born in a west texas gundown when the sun was sinkin low my mother she gave me her life there and my father had already left home nothing in life it come easy when you ain't really got no one but there's no place I rather be now than under the texas sun buried down among the worms of the grave I've been away too f**kin long hit the border come 1am drinkin beer and singin songs chorus:

whoa oh oh
I'm coming home
texas bound
put the pedal down

it's cold and lonely when you're six feet down it ain't no way to spend the day but now I'm back where I belong back in the lone star state
