

You Will Be Mine

Giant

I walked in close to midnight
And checked out the room
Saw you standing there smiling
Felt my pulse hit the moon
I came up behind you and asked you to dance
You turned on me and said, "Sorry no chance"

Well take a good look at my face
And know that I'll be back again

And you will be mine, I don't care how long it takes
I know one day you will be mine
Believe me girl it's no mistake, no mistake
'Cause you will be, you will be mine

At 2 a.m. it was crazy
When you came slow dancing past
Holding on to your hero
You know it's not gonna last
I'm gonna make my move tonight, it's getting way too late
I'll be back around tomorrow girl - for you there's no escape

So take a good look at my face
You're gonna get to know me well

And you will be mine
I don't care how long it takes
I know one day you will be mine
Believe me girl it's no mistake, no mistake
And you will be mine
Don't try to fight it, it's too late - way too late
'Cause you will be, you will be mine

I know what you're thinking
'Cause I'm thinking the same way, yeah
I know what you want, you don't have to say
You try to push me away, but you come back again and again
Girl you can't hide, there's just no way you can win
Now I know you feel it too
So if you're taken, I'm not getting through

There's no turning back, you know that it's too late
'Cause I'll be here tomorrow girl,
For you there's no escape
So take a good look at my face
You know that I'll be back again
